The Right Man.

Mr. George Pushing, proprietor of the Cushing House, has secured the services of George C. Chary to take the place of the Interfect of the holel, John E. Simpson, who died three weeks ago. Mr. Clary was a bruther-In-law of John, and was in attendance on him at the time he died. He has had some experience in the hotel business, and patrons of the Cushing House will find that Mr. Cushing has made a fortunate selection.

The parties dissatisfied with the

The parties dissdished with the amounts awarded them for land damages in connection with the building of the water works, were given a hearing to the Tounty Foundissioners at the right house on Thursday of last week and a large number were present. Each side had employed able counsel and the arguments were often warm and interesting. The claimants will have another hearing soon, when the Commissioners will listen to further evidence. Considerable religions interest la toern awkened among the yrang pro-ple here, especially at the Union-threch as a result of the week of prayer. In consequence it was decided to continue the united meetings of the churches through this week, and meetings have been held every evening except. Mon-day.

It is evidently a matter of economy to supply stock with water at a moderate temperature and Irequently. Cows will drink three times a day; horses as frequently; and sheep will slp n little from a trough of flowing water from a spring lar piles should be taken to savu all several times in the day. This is necessarr for the exercise of digestive functions, and to emble the nulmal to get all the nutriment possible from its food. How this supply is to be provided is a matter for each farmer to consider for himself where there is a good spring at a winter; this meets all the needs of the case if ample water troughs are provided, o that one vicion; master animal may not stand in front of the single trough and keep all the other animals from drinking. A good well is the next best node of supply, but a sufficient number f troughs, so that all the cattle esn drink, is holispensable. A second meeting of the creditors of the Weymouth Iron Co, was held, at which the agent and treasurer, one of the direc tors and the corporation's counsel were present. Two claims only were preented and allowed, one for $1557,51 the other for $350,00. The amount of the corporation's liabilities on Sept. 1, 1886, as per fedger account, wa $117,973.03. During September and Cle tober thirty per cent. of that liability was paid. Adjusting the interest to Nov. 2, 1886, and adding the two claims allowed Jan. 16, 1887, the amount of proved claims is $84,892,24. The assignees having requisite funds for the jurpose, the Court on the 19th inst ordered the payment and distribution of ten per cent, on proved claims not privileged, and one hundred per vent. on privileged claims.

A Domesticated Storm Hird. Several months ago during a violent wind-storm a bird was driven luto the Sen office in an exhausted condition The kird was accured and placed in the wicker basket that contained the remans of short-feeled pactical effusions and long- legged communications. The stranger was a singular bird, with a russet feather gown trimmed with white at the tip, and a mellow red bencalh his cople speak to us, they only remind us wings. His eye was brilliant in the extreme, and courage was reflected in the poise and curriage of his head, Not many hours had passed until he knew ench member of the staff, and had left his imprint on the fingers of those who caressed him. The bird was given to a gentleman to rear, and he was christened with the storm drops on his brow "The Storm King." Mr. Editor—As the committee who were chosen by the town to investigate the matter of procuring fire boats at the great fire in Weymouth on the zoth and 1st of Sept. 1858, have closed their bearings and the daily papers have circulard their bearings and the fact of the fire department at that time, which are not true and gives the public a wrong impression increased to my action, I beg leave to ask a space in your paper for the purpose of detending onselt, a chance I did oot have at the brainings, as I was only notined to be present at bit make the first lower that I ordered the boats. Mr. Rothard testified twice that I ordered the boats. Mr. Rothard testified that he heard incoder them, and Engine Hucknell testified that I ordered them. Mr. L. H. Lond, testified that he heard incoder them, and Engine that there is one out of the inc, for all of whom I have the greatest respect, believes that I thid soul for them and that the him ought to stand by two. At the first hearing a gentleman stated that at the first engineers meeting after the hie, one of the circulard them and that the him ought to stand by two. At the first hearing a gentleman stated that at the first engineers uneening after the hie, one of the circulard papers and that I made the remains, that I did not know the boats were conting until I saw them coming up the river. They have failed to find the man loope any such evidence, but Engineer Collier testifies that I gave him to understand that I hid not send for them. This I deav. ### THE CENTURY MAGAZINE

Free Numbers to New Readers. Its Great Attractions in ISST - A Circulation of a Quarter of a Million - tialning 75,000 in Six Months with the War Papers - Ils New Feature, "The Life of Lincoln."

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE gained 75,000 circulation in six months with the War Papers; it has gamed 30,000 in six weeks with the Life of Lincolo. We want every reader of this paper to read this great work, in which will be revealed "THE INSIDE HISTORY OF THE WAR." It is the Life of "the greatest hero of modern times," written by his Confidential Secretaries, Col. John Hay and John G. Nicolay, who were with the President Hroughout the war. To their were handel all Lincoln's private papers on his death, and for twenty-one years they have been at work upon this history. It began in the November CENTERY. New subscribers who begin with the January, 1837, number will receive November and December numbers free if they ask for them. Send $4.00 to THE CENTERY Co. 33. East 17th St. New-York, in check, draft, express or money order (do not send cash). Mentinn this paper. Ask for a year's subscription, beginning with January, '87, and the two free numbers. You will not regret the expenditure. You will get what the New-York Star calls

"The Most Remarkable Biography ever Produced in the United States." You will also obtain opening chapters of Frank R. Stocktm's new novel, and the beginning of other serial features. The November CENTURY was called by a famous London newspaper "without exception the most marvelous periodical we ever saw." We have made a special issue of the November and December numbers for this offer, and we will print as many editions as are needed. The CENTURY CO. N. Y.
